it to the needs of business, none has so managed the affairs of a State as to encourage the development and settlement of a continent, none has clevil ed a nation and so contributed to the comfort and happiness of man, none has so honestly and economically carried on the routine duti s of office. In all things it has been the direct opposite of the Democratic party. Grand in its ambitions and impulses, firm and resolute in its consistency, strong in its devotion to principle, it is now, as it has been from its berth, the representative of all that is best Eller and noblest in its own country and hope and promise of a better future for the human race. Its battles for human rights, its preservation of the Union, its abolition of slavery, its protection to labor, its elevation of manufacturers, its uphording of the national credit, its efforts in behalf of honest financial methods, its homestead system and its devotion to popular education have made for it the greatest record of any political organization this or any other country

The names of its heroes are legion, Lander and the deeds of Fremont, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield will shrine like electric lights on the pages of history. The Republicans of Nevada, in convention assembled, heartily indorse the acts of the fifty-first Congress, which has made greater advances in correct and needed legislation than any since the war. The crime of filibustering, so often resorted to by the Democratic party for the purpose of defeating legislation and blocking the wheels of gov ernment, has been done away with by the genius of Reed, McKinley and their associates, and the offenders taught that congressman are paid by the people for making laws and not
